MINISTER ADDRESSES ROCHESTER WOMAN'S CLUB

At the recent December meeting of the Rochester Woman's Club, members heard an address by the Rev. Vernon Lee Phillips, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Rochester. He spoke of the pressure and tensions of modern life and its effect on the family. Mr. Phillips said that the religious development of young people is greatly influenced by guidance received in the home and that a conscientious effort should be made by parents to instill religious beliefs in children and to encourage their interest in Sunday School and other organized religious activities for youth sponsored by the churches. He also emphasized participation in religious activities by the family as a group within the home as well as at religious services. Mr. Phillips also serves as executive secretary of the Greater Fall River Council of Churches.

Mrs. L. Rodman Doane read a Christmas prayer, and Mrs. Frank T. Howland played for singing.

At the business meeting it was voted to install a new heating system in the clubhouse. Members helped Mrs. Kenneth Winslow, Veterans' committee chairman, fill the Christmas bags that will be sent to the Brockton VA Hospital.

Donations will be accepted for the cheer basket until just before Christmas. Mrs. Harry Peckham is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Abraham Jackson.

Donations of Christmas wrappings are needed

It was voted to contribute pastries to the Tobey Hospital Snack Bar during April for 1959. The next record hop at the clubhouse will be held on Saturday night, December 20th, Mrs. David Fearing, chairman, announced.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program by Miss Adele Croker and Mrs. George Church, hostesses. A lovely arrangement of fresh holly in a large glass container provided a most attractive centerpiece for the table.

DOG RETURNS HOME

Friends of "Senator" Pepper of Fairhaven Road, Mattapoisett will be happy to know that his dog companion has returned home safely after being away for about 2 weeks. "Senator" believes foul play caused the disappearance but he is not pressing charges as long as his pal is safe and sound and home again.

- December 1846 - Off Cape Horn Homeward bound -

Dec. 1st. Tuesday begins with dark and heavy squalls from SSW. Gloomy messengers from the Genii of this wild sea. At 2 in the night we pass the meridian of Cape Horn in the latitude of 57° 40' South. Daylight does not leave us here at all. It is light enough to read any print for 22 hours. The other 2 hours the twilight moves from SW to SE. The scene around us for 2 or 3 days past has been sublime indeed. And the weather very uncomfortable. At daylight the wind is more moderate with the squalls fewer and fainter.

We saw a ship close hauled bound west around the Cape into the Pacific. We could not make her out. The weather moderates at 7 bells. We out reefs and set the light sails. At 6 P.M. she is going 4 knots. We catch a porpoise and some Cape pigeons.

Dec. 2nd. Wednesday begins with the wind dying away at sunset. Tis nearly calm. We are gratified with a sight of the sun as it sets and the moon nearly at her full with her starry train riding high in the heavens. We soon have the wind NE, then NNW with wet. Capt. Chester was sick last night. He took a Clyster and is better this morning. We caught more Cape pigeons today.

Dec. 3rd. Thursday is calm and pleasant with sunshine. There is a heavy swell from SW. At even a breeze springs up from SW. We steer NE by N. There is 2 point variation East Latitude.

SERVICE IN THE POST OFFICE FOR CHRISTMAS

Mattapoisett Postmaster Alice M. Corey has distributed labels to every family which will facilitate delivery of local and out of town mail.

These labels are printed "All for Local Delivery" and "All for Out-of-Town Delivery". Your co-operation in the use of these labels is respectfully solicited. Please separate your local and out-of-town mail, face the addresses all one way with the stamps in the upper right hand corner, place the correct printed label on the top of the respective bundles and tie securely before depositing in the mail receptacle.

These separated bundles of mail receive preferential handling at the Post Office as they by-pass two different handlings necessary on loose mail. This helps to advance the handling of local mail and the dispatch of out-of-town mail.

The Post Office will be open from 8:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. each day until Christmas including Saturdays, December 13 and December 20.

Unsealed Christmas cards may be mailed for 3¢ each with just your name inside, but no message or writing inside. With 4¢ stamps they become first class mail, can be sealed, written inside, and if you put on your return address they can be returned to you, and if the addressee has moved they can be forwarded.

If the addresses are not right on Christmas cards with 3¢ stamps, they can not be forwarded or returned to you but must be destroyed.

LITERATURE-DRAMA GROUP MEETING

Members of the Literature-Drama group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will meet this Thursday, December 11th, at the home of Mrs. Milton Smythe of Main Street. Members are to bring a Christmas story or poem to read, and also a 50¢ gift for exchange. Parts for the play, "Four For the Money", which will be presented at the February meeting of the Woman's Club, will be assigned at this meeting. Hostesses will be Mrs. James I. from West with fine rain, then begins to blow strong and veers round SW, then SSW with squalls of snow, hail and rain. The ship under short sail. Our dear ones at home are charming her ahead. We are now fairly east of Cape Horn in the Atlantic Ocean.

Dec. 5th. Saturday begins with a strong gale from SSW with squalls of hail, rain and snow. We set the main topgallant sail. The ship goes 8 knot under short sail, something remarkable for her. At midday we set foretopmast studdingsail and main royal and shake the reefs out of the foretopsail. Old Ocean's Coursers are urging us ahead. This day at 7 P.M. we exchanged Longitudes with an English Brig. She was under double reefed topsails, trysail and jib, bound round Cape Horn into the Pacific.

Dec. 6th. Sunday begins with a strong gale from NW with fine rain. We put the ship under double reefed topsails. At 7 bells the wind is West. We shake out a reef. It continues west with an occasional glance of sunshine till noon. Then without warning a tremendous gale begins from West. We call all hands and take in sail, heave the ship to under a goose wing of the maintopsail.
